LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

Avery Hill—Day and Residential Training College for Women.

The London County Council invites applications for appointment to the post of Woman Principal of the Day and Residential Training College, which it proposes to open in September, 1906, in the mansion erected by the late Colonel North, at Avery Hill, Eltham, which is to be adapted for the purpose. The College will provide a two-year course for women only, and will afford accommodation for 200 Day Students and 60 Residential Students.

The person appointed will be required to give her whole time to the duties of her office, and will in other respects be subject to the usual conditions attaching to the Council's service, particulars of which are contained in the form of application.

The College will be conducted under the Regulations issued by the Board of Education for the training of teachers.

The Salary attached to the post is £500 a year, in addition to which Free Board and Residence will be allowed.

The Council will require the successful Candidate to take up her duties, if possible, soon after Easter, 1906, in order that she may be consulted as to the appointment of the staff and the equipment of the college building.

Applications must be made on the official form, a copy of which can be obtained from the Clerk of the London County Council, at the County Hall, Spring Gardens, S.W., or at the Education Offices, Victoria Embankment, W.C., and must be returned so as to reach him not later than Monday, 15th January, 1906, addressed to the Education Offices, as above. Applications must be accompanied by copies of three testimonials of recent date. Candidates applying through the post for the form of application should enclose a stamped addressed envelope or wrapper. All communications should be marked on the outside—"Avery Hill Training College."

Candidates other than the successful candidate invited to attend the Committee will be allowed third class return railway fare, but no other expenses.

Canvassing, either directly or indirectly, will be considered a disqualification.
